EX-QUEEN TO ENDOW ORPHANS

Liliuokalani Makes Trust So Disposing of Bulk of Property After Death.

HONOLULU, Dec. 8.—Ex-Queen Liliuokalani of the Hawaiian Islands, it was announced to-day, has executed a deed of trust to W. O. Smith, A. S. Cleghorn, and C. P. Iaukea, whereby a great part of her estate, which is valued at $200,000, after her death will go toward the endowment of orphan asylums for Hawaiian and part Hawaiian children.

It is stipulated in the trust deed that the estate is to be managed for Liliuokalani's benefit during her lifetime, and that after her death, with the exception of annuities to a few of the ex-Queen's former retainers and the use of the real property by relatives, the balance of the estate is to be used for this new project. The Spreckels mortgage of $70,000 will be paid.

W. O. Smith, the principal trustee, was one of the chief instigators in Liliuokalani's dethronement. Iaukea was formerly Sheriff of this county and was the representative of the Hawaiian Government at the jubilee of Queen Victoria and at the coronation of the Czar. He also acted until last year as Liliuokalani's business manager. He resigned after her trip to Washington, where she went to press her claims against the United States Government. Liliuokalani is 71 years old and is said to be in good health.
